

St. Vladimir's Camp

St. Vladimir's Camp & the NJSST Camper Policy

for Online Social Networking and Blogging Websites

In general, St. Vladimir's Camp & the NJSST views social networking sites (e.g., MySpace, Facebook, etc.), personal Web sites, and Weblogs positively and respects the right of campers to use them as a medium of self-expression. If a camper chooses to identify himself or herself as a camper at St. Vladimir's Camp & the NJSST on such Internet venues, some readers of such Web sites or blogs may view the camper as a representative or spokesperson of St. Vladimir's Camp & the NJSST . In light of this possibility, St. Vladimir's Camp & the NJSST requires, as a condition of participation in the camp, that campers observe the following guidelines when referring to St. Vladimir's Camp & the NJSST , its programs or activities, its campers, and/or other staff, in a blog or on a Web site:

- 1) Campers must be respectful in all communications (text and photos) and blogs related to or referencing the camp, its employees, and other campers. Any photos or messages that are linked or "tagged" from "friends" and attached to your site(s) or profile(s) that are inappropriate should also be removed.
- 2) Campers must not use obscenities, profanity, or vulgar language.
- 3) Campers must not use blogs or personal Web sites to disparage St. Vladimir's Camp & the NJSST , other campers, or staff of St. Vladimir's Camp & the NJSST .
- 4) Campers must not use blogs or personal Web sites to harass, bully, or intimidate other campers or staff of St. Vladimir's Camp & the NJSST . Behaviors that constitute harassment and bullying include, but are not limited to, comments that are derogatory with respect to race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, color, or disability; sexually suggestive, humiliating, or demeaning comments; and threats to stalk, haze, or physically injure another person.
- 5) Campers must not use these venues to discuss engaging in conduct prohibited by camp policies and an Orthodox Christian lifestyle, including, but not limited to, the use of alcohol and drugs, sexual behavior, sexual harassment, and bullying.

Any camper found to be in violation of any portion of this policy will be subject to immediate disciplinary action, up to and including dismissal at the discretion of the Camp Director

By signing below, I agree to the policy listed above.
